

By the Queene,

Here as the Quenes Maiestie for sondry, great, and weightie affayres, concerning her highnes, and the state of her Maiesties realme, and churche of Englande, hath by the aduise of her mooste honourable counsaile called & sommoned her Maiesties highe Courte of Parliamente to be kept and holden at her citie of Oxfozd, the seconde daye of Aprill next comminge, yet neuerthelesse her Maiestie for diuerse greate respectes and considerations the same nowe speciallye mouinge, hath by the aduise aforesayd resolved and determined to adiourne and prozoge her sayd parliament from the sayde citie of Oxfozde vnto her highnes citie of Westmynster, and there to be holden and kept. Wherefore to thintent her louing subiectes shall haue knowledge and aduertisemente of the same, her highnes pleasure is to signifie by this her graces Proclamation, as well vnto the noble men and piers of this realme, being Lordes of the Parliament, as vnto the Knightes, Citezens, Burgeyses, and other her hyghnes subiectes, who shall haue cause of repayre to the sayde Parliamente, that her wyll and pleasure is, that they obserue and kepe theyr assemblies and apparaunces at the sayde citie of Westmynster in lyke maner, forme, and condition, as they shuld or ought to haue done at the sayd citie of Oxfozde.

God saue the Quene.

Londini in aedibus Iohannis Carodi

Typographi Regine Marie excusum.

Anno. M.D. LIII.

Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum.